

CHANCEMAN, the Radical, is the coming man in France, and may be elected Grey's successor.

BRANCHE WILLIAMS of Bradford, Canada, matriculated at the Toronto University recently, passing an excellent examination not only in English but in French and German.

The Buffalo Commercial thinks Democrats are not honest. Not fair, because they take their whisky straight. It is to be inferred that they take something akin to alcohol with a bit of lemon.

The colored subscribers of the APPEAL will do well to read the extract from the letter of a Northern correspondent, which we publish in another place. It will enable them to see themselves as others see them.

GEN. GRANT'S BIRTH WAS NOT "ULYSSES," Grant, but Hiram U. Grant. The President's name is not "Glover Cleveland," but Stephen G. Cleveland. The great speaker's name is not "Jay Gould," but John J. Gould.

In length of life Gen. Grant fell sixteen years short of his father. His father died in 1873, his mother in 1883. Both were buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, near Cincinnati.

The seventh annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of this State will be held at the Hotel McAdams on the 15th to the 18th inclusive. All the associations of the State are expected to be well represented.

The English Liberator has reason to fear that Mr. Gladstone will not recover his voice in time to take part in the fall campaign. He still cannot speak without wheezing, and his physicians say he should not even whisper.

The State of Illinois proposes to pay the owners for all diseased cattle that may be killed for the safety of the herds of the State, and who are trying to do the best they can for the country. He is responsible to the people and he alone, and he ought to be permitted to conduct affairs to the best of his knowledge and ability, so he will not even whisper.

The city of Genoa proposes to have a Columbus Exposition of American products in 1892, to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the sailing of the great Italian navigator on the venturesome voyage that ended in the discovery of America.

"EUL PLAYS" communication on Cleveland, a second Jackson, is unjust in every word. Unjust to an honest man, who is trying to do the best he can for the country. He is responsible to the people and he alone, and he ought to be permitted to conduct affairs to the best of his knowledge and ability, so he will not even whisper.

The police ought not to rest until they run down and arrest the murderous ruffians who threatened the execution of a man. Their duty is to do the best they can for the country. He is responsible to the people and he alone, and he ought to be permitted to conduct affairs to the best of his knowledge and ability, so he will not even whisper.

The leading Jews of New York have taken steps toward the erection of a monument in Central Park to the memory of the late Sir Moses Montefiore. Ten thousand dollars have already been subscribed. Subscriptions will be received by Mr. B. R. Kohn, treasurer. Not only Jews, but gentiles everywhere in the United States should send subscriptions for the purpose of doing honor to the memory of the great philanthropist.

Since Mr. Bayard became a member of President Cleveland's Cabinet, and since the duties of Secretary of State have been undertaken to reorganize the consular and diplomatic service. Those representatives of this country who have been appointed since the 4th of March have received special instructions relative to the improvement of the service, and within a few weeks new regulations will be in force, which, it is believed, will aid in the improvement. The reorganization, it is thought will have been completed by January next. It is not probable that there is more than one man until two years have elapsed.

MASSACHUSETTS is again being scourged by the cholera, and this the New York Herald says is greater cause for alarm than its appearance among the orange groves of Valencia or the gardens of Sicily. The cholera, which arrives at New York from the ports of Italy makes its call at Massachusetts. Through Massachusetts comes all the produce that is brought to the Metropolis from the south of Italy. The harbor of Southern France has, in recent years, come into close proximity with the United States, and we can hardly wonder that the cholera, which is the anchor in its waters.

The New York Tribune's London correspondent says that the ministry and the Parnellites are now on good terms and that they meet for the arrangement of business in the House of Commons. The Louisiana Senator Reiterates in Strong Language His Criticisms of Mr. Cleveland.

He Says His Opponents Have Undergone No Change During His Sojourn in Europe.

And that He Has Nothing to Recel—Why He Is Dissatisfied with the Administration.

NEW YORK, August 4.—Thirteen months ago Louisiana's junior United States Senator, James B. Eustis, went abroad to join his family in Italy. While on a short visit at his home in New Orleans, just prior to his departure, he authorized the publication of a statement expressing in the strongest terms his dissatisfaction of President Cleveland's policy.
